Continuing Education Changes in 2009

Having trouble keeping up with all of the recent changes in the renewal procedures for your mortgage license? We understand, the requirements continue to change – for the third year in a row! Not to worry, here at Donaldson we have simple solutions to your renewal and education needs. Donaldson is approved to offer all continuing education required by OFI to renew your mortgage license for 2010. Schedule your course today and avoid costly penalties and fines!

Each licensed person will need to complete a 10 Hour Mortgage Continuing Education Course in order to renew their license for 2010. This course must be completed by December 31st to avoid penalties or suspension. In addition, licensees must renew their license through the state managed NMLS system to ensure complete compliance.

DONALDSON CONTINUING EDUCATION COURSE – 2009

*fully approved by OFI for 2010 renewals

Want to actually get something out of your continuing education course, not just “survive” the process? We understand, which is why our mortgage continuing education courses are developed and instructed by industry leaders with up to date topics, industry trends, and of course legal updates to make sure that anyone who attends a Donaldson class gains valuable knowledge to succeed next year! This year, topics covered in class include:

- ❖ An introduction to the Louisiana S.A.F.E. Act
- ❖ Specific Changes incurred by Act 522 of the State Legislature
- ❖ RESPA Update with 2009 compliance update
- ❖ Complete Overview of the new HUD documents including GFE
- ❖ Mortgage Fraud and how it affects you and your business
- ❖ And much More!
